ENGINEER LAYS BLAME TO FOG

Lackawanna Passenger Train Is Standing Still at Gibson, N. Y., When the Express Dashes Around a Curve at the Rate of Sixty-five Miles an Hour Many of the Victims Were Excursionists.

Corning, N. Y., July 5.—The wreck of Lackawanna passenger train No. 9 and express train No. 11, in which forty-one persons were killed and more than fifty injured, at Gibson, three miles east of here, was due according to Engineer Schroeder of the express, to his failure to see signals set against his train.

The morning was foggy and the express train, going at a rate of sixty-five miles an hour, crashed half way through the passenger, which was at a standstill. Many of the victims were excursionists going to Niagara Falls.

The wrecked train stood on the main track, blocked by a crippled freight train. There was no flag out according to Engineer Schroeder. The signals, which he declared it was too foggy to see, were just around a curve. The flying express plunged past them and crashed into the rear of No. 9, bringing death to over two score of its passengers.

Although Engineer Schroeder of the express declared there was no flagman to warn him of the presence of the stalled train ahead Lackawanna officials declared that a flagman had been sent back in the rear of No. 9 when she was held up.

A statement concerning the wreck was given out by General Superintendent E. M. Rine of the Lackawanna, as follows:

"I believe the cause of the accident was undoubtedly due to the fact that Engineer Schroeder in charge of the express train ran through the block and past a flagman who had been sent in the rear of train No. 9."

Other officials declared later that Patrick Lane, the flagman, was half a mile back of train No. 9. They also assert that a mile back of the ill fated train was an automatic danger signal thrown against Schroeder's train. Lane declares he waved the flag to stop Schroeder, but that the engineer went right on.

George Reynolds of Brooklyn was standing on the rear platform of the back car when he saw the express train rushing upon him and jumped. He swore that no warning came from the whistle of the onrushing train.

Schroeder had taken No. 11 at Elmira fifteen minutes before. It was a few minutes later. The stretch of track from Elmira to Corning is fitted for fast running and he was sending his train along at sixty-five miles an hour. No. 9 was supposed to be half an hour ahead of him. He had no warning until he made out the outline of the rear coach of No. 9 through the fog. Then he threw in the reverse without shutting off the steam.

The jerk threw the train off the track and the locomotive plunged on to splinter the two day coaches filled with excursionists and tear through the last of the Pullman's. Schroeder said the impact threw him from the cab and landed him on his shoulder on the roadbed, practically unhurt. The 100-ton monster continued its plunge through the middle of the train, grinding everything in its path. When finally blocked by the debris it remained on the roadbed in the midst of the demolition it had caused, while hundreds of persons rushed in every kind of vehicle to the scene to lift and pry the dead and injured from the tangled mass of wreckage.

Rescuers were quickly on the scene. In what seemed an incredibly short time hundreds of automobiles had lined the highway which led to the wreck and the work of getting the injured to the hospitals and the dead to the morgues was impeded by the blocking of the road.

CALL ON WILSON
AT SUMMER HOMEThirty-five National Committeemen Visit Candidate.

TALK OF CAMPAIGN MANAGER

After the Conference Most of Them Asserted That Any One Whom the Governor Might Name Would Be Elected to the Position of Chairman. Wilson Will Meet Committee July 15 at Chicago.

Seagirt, N. J., July 5.—Thirty-five members of the Democratic national committee called on Governor Wilson at Seagirt. They came from Baltimore on a special train and on the way they talked of the selection of a seasoned manager for chairman to run the governor's campaign. When they left Seagirt two hours later, after friendly chats with the nominee most of them declared that any one whom the governor might name would be elected to the place.

As to who this will be, whether William F. McCombs, Fred B. Lynch, Robert S. Hudspeeth or any one of half a dozen others mentioned for the place will have the preference, Governor Wilson had not decided. The governor will meet the committee July 15 in Chicago, stopping off en route probably at Indianapolis to take Governor Marshall, his running mate, with him. There was much diversity of opinion on the way up from Baltimore among the delegates as to who should be elected chairman. Mr. Lynch, who managed the campaign of the late Governor Johnson of Minnesota, and Judge Wade of Iowa were frequently mentioned. It seemed to be the consensus of opinion that a man who knows the party leaders in the field would make an ideal leader.

Not long after the arrival of the delegates, Mr. McCombs, who was reported to be ill in Baltimore, appeared on the governor's lawn. He had come on a later train. The governor spied him and left the governor with whom he was talking to shake his campaign manager's hand and thank him.

Held Confidential Chat.

They strolled across the lawn with hands clasped and held a low conversation. Before the governor could return to his other friends he announced that Ollie James, who was permanent chairman of the convention, would visit him soon to arrange the date and details for his formal notification of nomination.

Calling Norman E. Mack aside, Governor Wilson held a long talk with him, punctured by Mr. Mack's vigorous gestures and his own nods of assent.

A little later Mr. Mack, after conferring with other committeemen, said to Roger Sullivan of Illinois: "We have just about decided to meet for organization in New York on July 15."

"Make it Chicago," suggested Mr. Sullivan.

"No, most of us want it to be held in New York," Mr. Mack said.

"Come out to French Lick for the meeting," insisted Thomas Taggart, "and let it all be at my expense."

"Chicago," repeated Mr. Sullivan. "Better see, hadn't we, what he has to say about it?" Mr. Taggart suggested, indicating Governor Wilson with a gesture.

They acted on this advice, but no one save themselves heard the governor's smiling reply. A new canvass of the committee was made and Mr. Mack announced from the governor's porch that Chicago had been selected.

There was a great deal of surmise as to Governor Wilson's choice for chairman. Mr. Hudspeeth, who managed the Eastern end of the campaign in 1904 and 1908 and a close friend of Governor Wilson, was frequently mentioned.

CASUALTIES GROWING LESS

Only Twenty Deaths Reported From Celebrating Fourth.

Chicago, July 5.—America celebrated its sanest Fourth. The adoption since last year by many additional cities, villages and hamlets of regulations forbidding the sale or use of fireworks resulted in a further saving of life and a lessening of the number of maimed.

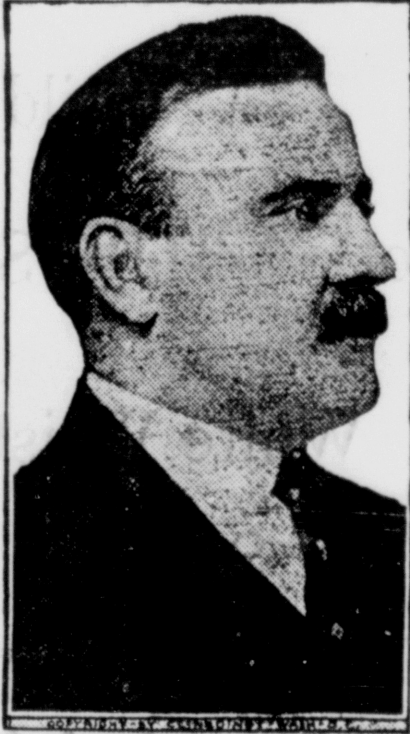

In most places where the use of fireworks was forbidden and the regulations enforced by the police there were no casualties. In other places the number of accidents was greatly reduced.

The list of dead throughout the country numbered twenty, against fifty-seven last year. There were 648 injured.

Seventy-five Poisoned at Banquet.

Marquette, Wis., July 5.—Seventy-five members of the alumni of the Menominee high school are ill of ptomaine poisoning as the result of eating a salad served at the annual banquet. None is in a serious condition.

ANDREW CASE BEFORE TAFT

Officials Named in Letter to Take Various Attitudes.

Washington, July 5.—The issue raised between Secretary MacVeagh and A. Platt Andrew will be discussed probably at Beverly where Secretary MacVeagh will join President Taft Sunday and return with him to Washington. It may be thoroughly aired soon in a house investigation proposed by Representative Cox of Ohio. The officials whom Assistant Secretary Andrew, in his letter of resignation to the president, cited as being dissatisfied with Secretary MacVeagh's attitude toward them, have taken various attitudes.

Lee M'Clung, treasurer of the United States, whose relations with Mr. MacVeagh are said to have been especially strained, declined to make any statement whatever.

MACVEAGH PREPARES
LENGTHY STATEMENTSecretary Gives His Version of Andrew's Resignation.

Lancaster, Mass., July 5.—Secretary MacVeagh, who is a visitor at the home of Bayard Thayer, prepared a lengthy statement of his side of the controversy precipitated by Mr. Andrew's letters of resignation. The statement of the secretary says:

"I regret that it seems necessary to refer to the letters published by Mr. A. Platt Andrew and addressed to the president and to me. The fulminence of the attack has probably limited its effect; but apart from the attack upon me he strangely misrepresented a number of the chief men of the treasury department to whom I attribute a large measure of the success of the department work and seems to deny that anything has been accomplished either by them or anybody else. I am obliged, therefore, to restore Mr. Andrew's resignation to its proper light."

"Mr. Andrew says he resigned because of the conditions in the treasury department of which he disapproves. A comparison of this statement with the facts is probably the simplest way to test the animus and veracity of his letters. He did not resign voluntarily, but was asked to resign and asked repeatedly—and he used every effort and influence possible to get the request for his resignation withdrawn and pleaded to be allowed to continue in his place. And it was when he had failed to have the request for his resignation withdrawn and because of this, that he made his attack, and chose to give the impression that his resignation was a matter of his own choice and determined upon for public reasons."

REBELS IN FULL RETREAT

Make Preparations to Isolate City of Chihuahua.

Chihuahua, Mex., July 5.—General Orozco is at Sauz, thirty miles north of here, while the main columns of rebels are encamped at Moctezuma, only 114 miles from the American border. All day long the rebels retreated. The city of Chihuahua, with its nervous colony of foreigners, was left untouched by the rebels, troop trains being sent through at full speed by General Orozco, to prevent looting and disorder.

Preparations were made by the rebels to isolate the city of Chihuahua, all bridges having been destroyed south of here. All rebel officials left on the last train.

Chicago, July 5.—Frank Gotch, champion of all wrestling champions, scored an easy victory from Joseph Smejkal, Bohemian wrestling champion, at the Coliseum in a match billed for the title, but which, because of its onesidedness, far from resembled it. The Iowa farmer gained the first fall in 7:20 with a hammerlock and the second in 4:55 with a hammerlock followed by a stretch hold.

DEMOCRATS HAD
MUCH MATERIALEighteen Months Ago Every State
Offered Candidate.

ANY OF THEM LOOKED GOOD.

National Convention Did Not Better Chances, as It Proved Party Was Split—But For Bryan Clark Would Probably Have Been Named Within a Few Ballots.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Baltimore, July 5.—[Special.]—Eighteen months ago there was a Democratic possibility in nearly every state in the Union. The Democrats were so sure of winning the presidency after the elections of 1910 that they felt that it would make no difference whether they had Harmon of Ohio, Wilson of New Jersey, Clark of Missouri, Folk of Massachusetts, Marshall of Indiana, Burke of North Dakota, Smith of Georgia, Underwood of Alabama or any other man, for it seemed that the Republicans were doomed to hopeless defeat in the campaign of 1912.

Nothing that the Republicans did from that time to the present has changed the condition as regards their party. There were men who were determined to nominate Mr. Taft at Chicago who believed that he was defeated before he was named, but they would have none of Roosevelt. But something has happened to the Democrats. The convention at Baltimore has not increased their hopes of victory. There is not the same buoyancy now that there was when the delegates first began to assemble. Factional fights have arisen to disturb conditions. The Democrats are very much divided.

Chief Harmonizer.

Mr. Bryan told me on his way from Chicago to Baltimore that he was coming here as chief harmonizer of the Democratic party. He said that he had jumped into the fight against Judge Parker in order to harmonize the differences in the party. Of course there may be different degrees of harmony, but my own opinion is that if Mr. Bryan had not appeared on the scene and had let the convention go forward without any interference or dictation on his part Champ Clark would have been nominated before half a dozen ballots were taken. Beyond question the convention was quite friendly to the speaker before the fight made by Mr. Bryan on Judge Parker.

What Hurt Clark.

"Ifs" are always on tap in explanations. If Champ Clark's friends or a portion of them had not voted for Parker, Clark would have been nominated. Perhaps he might have been nominated if New York had withheld her support for a few more ballots. Mr. Bryan's attack upon New York and his withdrawal from Clark were body blows to the speaker. There were many delegates who did not dare to go to Clark after Mr. Bryan had made it apparent that he did not approve of the course of Clark's friends in the convention.

"It's like this," explained one man from a western state. "We are friendly enough to Clark, but if we should ever want anything back home after opposing Bryan or what Bryan wanted it would be fatal to us. There is such a Bryan sentiment at home that we must stand for anything he wants."

Senators on Hand.

One can well understand why there was not very much doing in congress while the Democratic convention was in session. Most of the Democratic senators were delegates to the convention, and the few who were not delegates were interested spectators.

One day Senator Bacon asked another senator to remain with him in Washington until after 12 o'clock. "If you don't," remarked the Georgia senator, "there will be no one there but the chaplain and myself, and we can never adjourn the senate."

Busy House Members.

The members of the house were no less active than the senators, and, although there were not so many of them serving as delegates, they were on hand at all sessions of the convention and gave large chunks of advice to the men representing their states and districts. Congress did not seem to be very important while the Democrats were trying to select a candidate for president.

Long Sessions.

Another thing that tried the patience of the convention was the long drawn out sessions. To sit for ten hours in a hot, stuffy hall on uncomfortable chairs, crowded and jostled, with much time spent in senseless cheering and shouting, each side trying to howl down the other, did not tend to steady the nerves of the delegates. Added to the discomfort there were the taunts of the faction which showed gales, which angered the men whose candidates were losing. Altogether it was a convention which sorely tried the tempers of men.

Wanted to Laugh.

The big crowd wanted to laugh, but it did not have many opportunities. Everybody was so dead serious that laughter was almost out of the question. There were little bits of humor passed around among the delegates at times, but toward the last a joke had to be a mighty good one even to produce a smile.

State Police Stop Fight With Johnson in Ninth Round.

East Las Vegas, N. M., July 5.—The Jack Johnson-Jim Flynn forty-five-round fight for the heavyweight championship was brought to a close in the ninth round by the state police. Captain Fornoff of the state force, personal representative at the ring-side of Governor McDonald, declared that it was no longer a boxing contest; that it was a brutal exhibition and that Flynn's foul tactics made its continuance impossible. He jumped into the ring with his deputies and drove the fighters and officials who followed him to the corners. Referee Ed W. Smith then announced that Johnson had won and the fight was over.

Flynn displayed no ability throughout the fight. He was cut about the face until blood ran down his breast in a stream.

He was utterly helpless from the first round on and by the sixth was deliberately trying to butt the champion's chin with his head. Time after time as Johnson held him powerlessly in the clinches Flynn jerked his head upward. Smith warned him repeatedly, but it did no good.

BRYAN GIVES WILSON
2,000,000 PLURALITYCommoner Feels Sure New Jersey Man Will Win.

Chicago, July 5.—William Jennings Bryan, who stopped in Chicago on his way to Nebraska from Baltimore, declared that if a third party were formed Colonel Roosevelt might drive some reactionary Democrats over to President Taft, but with the Democratic ticket and platform Roosevelt could not expect to draw many progressive Democrats to himself.

Before leaving Baltimore Mr. Bryan estimated that Wilson would have a plurality of 2,000,000 over President Taft. When asked if he still held to that estimate he replied:

"In estimating Wilson's plurality at 2,000,000 I was not counting on a third party. That might reduce the plurality some and yet not much, because many Republicans will vote for Mr. Roosevelt who would not be willing to vote for a Democrat and that will largely reduce Mr. Taft's vote. Taft will be the contender for the Roosevelt votes—not Mr. Wilson."

"What do you think of the attitude of Governor Osborn of Michigan in coming out against the Roosevelt third party?" was the next question asked of Mr. Bryan.

"I have read Governor Osborn's statement," he replied, "but I do not expect as large a proportion of support from the progressive leaders as from the rank and file of the Republican party."

Resent Award.

Los Angeles, July 5.—For twelve rounds Ad Wolgast and Joe Rivers fought like catamounts in their lightweight championship battle at Vernon arena. In the thirteenth there came a blow which landed low and both boys in an instant were sprawling and writhing upon the floor. Wolgast was declared the winner by Referee Jack Welsh. Then Bedlam broke loose—a demonstration lasting more than half an hour—by 11,000 excited fight fans, the most remarkable feature of which was that it was handled throughout by less than a dozen policemen without violence of any sort.

Referee Welsh stands disputed by Rivers and by thousands of spectators in his decision that Wolgast won by a knockout. The Mexican claimed a foul and in his dressing room he displayed a dented aluminum protector to prove his claim.

Logansport, Ind., July 5.—Physicians exploded a giant firecracker at the bedside of James McGowan at a hospital in the hope that the nervous shock would stop his hiccoughing, from which he has been suffering for five days, but, though he was quieted, he died of exhaustion.

McGowan, who was forty-eight years old, had been hiccoughing continuously, and electricity and other remedial agents were tried without effect before the opening of the Fourth of July celebration suggested the firecracker as a last aid.

Great Falls, Mont., July 5.—Caught in the act of stealing rifles and ammunition from a hardware store here Paul Fitzgerald and Lorenzo Fountain, nine-year-old boys, between sobs, confessed to the police, it is alleged, that they not only were guilty of trying to steal the guns, but were the ones who broke into Strain's grocery store, into Munner's store and one or two other places, from which they stole several small articles. They said they wanted the guns so they could go hunting.

ers for Support.

SENATOR DIXON IS MANAGER

As Presidential Candidate of the New Progressive Party Roosevelt Will Make the Claim That Neither the Republicans or Democrats Are Seriously Trying to Deal With Economic and Social Conditions.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 5.—A campaign along novel lines was sketched in bare outline by Colonel Roosevelt. As the candidate of the new progressive party for the presidency Colonel Roosevelt intends to make an appeal largely to the farmers and the wage worker on the ground that neither the Democratic nor the Republican party is attempting seriously in this campaign to deal with the fundamental economic and social conditions which confront the country. It is from the farmer and wage earner, Colonel Roosevelt feels, that he has obtained his strength in the past. It is to them that he intends to appeal now.

Colonel Roosevelt said that Senator Joseph M. Dixon of Montana, who managed his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination, in all probability will be his campaign manager in his fight at the head of the new party.

The senator's headquarters probably will be in New York, where he has spent most of the time since the Chicago convention. This program has been agreed upon as definitely as possible in advance of the national convention in Chicago next month.

"I expect that Senator Dixon will be in charge of the campaign," said Colonel Roosevelt. "He wants to stay in the fight just as he has been and so far as I am concerned he certainly may."

The former president intends to break far away from conventional lines of conducting a campaign. He hopes to lead what he termed a people's government.

"This thing has got to be done by the people or it won't be done at all," he said. "Of course, we need leaders, but it doesn't make so much difference about the leaders, after all."

Talks Freely of Intentions.

For that reason, he continued, he was not perturbed at the fact that some of the leaders in his recent campaign had declined to follow him in his present fight. The colonel talked more freely of his intentions than he has done heretofore. Throughout his campaign he will contend that neither of the great old parties has shown the adaptability or the inclination to take the point of view of the average man who has to work for his living.

This statement he intends to couple with the argument which he previously outlined that the Republican and Democratic parties are largely under the influence of bosses and that the time has come for a new national party.

In this connection the high cost of living is to come in for special attention. The former president said he intends to deal with it constantly, on the ground that while to some extent it is due to natural economic causes there are collateral causes which may be reached and remedied.

Colonel Roosevelt has been engaged in a study of the platform adopted in Baltimore this week and of the Republican platform and believes he has found in them valuable campaign material.

He said neither of these platforms showed the slightest understanding of the social and industrial movement which is under way in this country. They have taken up, he said, the old policies and the battle cries of other years. At the Baltimore and Chicago conventions, he continued, there apparently was no reflection of the movement which, as he put it, all serious minded men are dwelling upon—the effort to obtain better conditions of life for the ordinary wage worker.

Chicago, July 5.—Theodore Roosevelt is a 4 to 1 shot. That's what "Jim" O'Leary, the stock yards gambling king, thinks of the third party candidate's chance. The odds in O'Leary's book read:

"Taft—Even money.

"Wilson—Even money.

"The Field—4 to 1."

"Yep, Teddy is still in the field," O'Leary said. "He hasn't got a chance as far as the betting goes, alongside of Taft or Wilson. They are easy favorites."

"Just to show how strong I think Roosevelt is I'm classing him with the Socialist, Prohibition and all the other candidates, with Taft and Wilson my pick against that field at 4 to 1."

NOKAY LAKE PATRIOTISM

Brainerdites and Farmers Mingle,
Fine Program of Sports
Carried Out

The spirit of the Fourth of July ran high at Nokay Lake all day yesterday, when a large number from Brainerd and farmers and fruiters
for miles around gathered to celebrate the Fourth.

The rain of the early morning did not dampen the enthusiasm, for by ten o'clock a large crowd was on hand to witness the rag-a-muffin parade which was one of the features of the day and was about a quarter of a mile in length.

At noon hundreds congregated by the shore of the lake, in the Greenaway hall, and in the picnic grounds and partook of dinner that was of the real picnician flavor with lots of fried chicken.

At 2 o'clock the Rev. Charles Fox
Davis delivered an address on "American Patriotism," which was much enjoyed, it being out of the ordinary all political faiths felt pleased with rut of political harangue, and men of its tone and optimism.

From 2:45 until 5 o'clock a most versatile program of athletic sports
was carried out, consisting of foot racing, horse racing, potato and egg racing, boating, swimming, etc., with a display of fireworks on the lake and other amusements during the evening.

A large crowd of Brainerd people were out in automobiles and teams and a delightful occasion as spent together.

J. H. Dickenson and his estimable wife, together with Messrs. Cooley, Cannon and Greenaway and a host of others certainly planned and carried out as pleasant a gathering as could be had, and the gathering was a memorable one. There is no prettier place in Crow Wing county than beautiful Nokay Lake and its environs and the most beautiful scenes and fine roads while enroute.

CARNIVAL IN SUPERIOR

Superior Telegram States the Patterson Shows are Bigger and Better Than Ever

The great Patterson shows which will be in Brainerd July 8-13, are now showing at Superior, Wis., and the Superior Telegram devotes the following to the carnival company:

Yesterday Hammond Park was a deserted field. Today it is a Coney island minus only the water. A White City in miniature has been erected since midnight. It is quite an achievement to be able to work
this transformation in a day's time.

It requires a lot of capital, a lot of equipment and paraphernalia, a small army of people skilled in the particular line in which they are engaged, and a master hand to direct the whole.

James Patterson, of the Great Patterson shows is the man who who has succeeded in making this possible.
He owns a train of 22 cars on which this aggregation of shows and amusement devices is transported from town to town. The work of unloading the train began early this morning. Tonight the big amusement enterprise, complete in every detail will be opened to the public.

The Patterson shows have been in Superior before, having exhibited here two years ago. At that time they did not have half the shows that are here this week. Only one or two attractions have been retained from year to year. The big English steeple chase and the Ferris wheel are the same old favorite riding devices that has carried for several years past. The trained animal show is a familiar name, but the entire performance is entirely different. The name is a misnomer. It is in reality a two ring circus. The performing elephants, lions, tigers, ponies and dogs, together with clever equestrian and acrobatic acts make it the most pretentious exhibition ever carried with a carnival company. The Nomia show is another that is in a class by itself. This musical comedy, the production of which employs 26 people, staged in a real canvas theater, with elaborate costumes, special scenery and gorgeous electrical effects. Jungleland and the Annex are side shows brim-full of all sorts of curious people and animals all living. Mazzetta is an educated horse that does stunts enough to make a program thirty minutes in length. Mazzetta requires a carload of special scenery and stage effects, a brass band and orchestra and is one of the main attractions of the Midway. There are many other attractions on the grounds varied enough for anybody.
The crystal palace is a favorite of the ladies and children and soun-ders are given to every visitor. All sorts of concession booths are another source of diversion peddling everything from red lemonade to poodle dogs. The Patterson concert band plays a program each afternoon and evening. The shows open at 1:30 in the afternoon and at 7 in the evening, and there will be street parades Tuesday and Friday evenings.

NO THOUGHT OF QUITTING FIGHT

Colonel Roosevelt Confers With Several Supporters.

ASSERTS NEED OF NEW PARTY

One of the Principal Arguments to Be Made is That Course of Affairs in Both Republican and Democratic Conventions Shows Formation of a Political Organization Opposed to
"Bosses" is in Demand.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 4.—With the Democratic national ticket in the field Colonel Roosevelt and a group of his lieutenants took up the work of laying the foundation upon which they hope to build a new party. Since the birth of the party in Chicago little has been done, as Colonel Roosevelt said he felt it necessary to await the outcome at Baltimore.

The situation in the light of the nomination of Woodrow Wilson was discussed at a conference at Saga-more Hill, which was attended by Senator Dixon of Montana, William Flinn of Pittsburg, George W. Perkins and Frank A. Munsey of New York and E. A. Van Valkenberg of Philadelphia.

The presence of these men at Saga-more Hill gave rise to reports that the third party movement had suffered a serious setback as a result of the selection of candidates by the Democratic convention and that some of Colonel Roosevelt's leaders were in favor of abandoning the fight. Colonel Roosevelt denied this emphatically.

"There was no thought of abandoning the fight," said he. "These men simply came to talk over the situation with me and to discuss details of the call for the national convention."

The statement of Governor Osborn
of Michigan, one of the seven governors who asked Colonel Roosevelt to become a candidate for the Republican nomination, that in his opinion no third party was now necessary, was cited to the colonel as the one reason for the reports that all was not going well with the movement.

Are Expecting Some Losses.

"Governor Osborn has said about the same thing before," he said. "I did not expect to have his support.
We are going to have some losses of this sort. Governor Hadley came out for Taft, Governor Osborn for Wilson.
Our plans will not be affected."

Colonel Roosevelt predicted several weeks before the Chicago convention that after all the nominations had been made there would be a period of slow movement, such as he experienced in the first weeks after he entered the campaign for the Republican presidential nomination in February.

He said he was in no way discouraged at the outlook, but on the contrary had received assurances of support from every section of the country.
He would express no opinion of the chances of his ultimate success.

From what has been said by Colonel Roosevelt and his supporters it is believed that several distinctive issues will be brought into the campaign. Foremost will be, according to the present plans, the argument that the course of affairs in both the Republican and the Democratic conventions and in the recent history of the country has demonstrated the need of a new party which will be national in scope, and which will go on record
as opposed to "bosses," such as Colonel Roosevelt has said flourished with equal power among both the Democratic and Republican parties. Colonel Roosevelt believes that he will be able to present this argument with effectiveness and that he will gain a large measure of support south of the Mason and Dixon line.

STRUGGLE BETWEEN ROADS IS ACUTE

Cuyuna Northern Railway Steals a March on the Soo Line at Midnight

SOO SURVEYORS IN THE FIELD

Soo Working Through Sections 9 and 17 and on to the City of Brainerd

The Soo into Brainerd within a short time seems to be the idea that prevails on the Cuyuna range at Iron-ton and Crosby today.

The struggle between the Cuyuna Northern and the Soo railways is becoming acute.

Following the arrest of two right-of-way laborers by the agent of a property owner in section 10, township 46, range 29 west of Crosby, the charge being the willful destruction of trees, comes the news that the Cuyuna Northern secured the release of its men.

The latest thing to arouse Iron-ton and Crosby is the report circulated that the Cuyuna Northern threw a track across land 10 feet west of the present terminus of the Soo line north of Iron-ton.

Following this the Soo threw a corps of surveyors into the field and they are scattered in bunches across the country west of Iron-ton running lines through sections 9 and 17, township 46, range 29 and this, say prominent business men of Iron-ton, means nothing more than that the Soo is going to run straight into Brainerd, with Iron-ton and Crosby on its main line from Brainerd to Duluth and Superior.

Developments appear to have followed the one day visit of President Howard Elliott, of the Northern Pacific railway, on the range. Visions of railroads are flitting before the eyes of the Iron-ton and Crosby people and they are doing their share to see that something gets to Brainerd if talking can do it.

Weber-Fox

A very pretty home wedding took place on Wednesday evening at the farm residence of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fox, West Brainerd, when their daughter Lydia Bernice was given in the hand of marriage to Joseph Anton Weber of this city.

The wedding affair took place at 8:30 with a group of 35 guests who witnessed it. The bride wore a dress of silk poplin trimmed with baby Irish lace, while the maid of honor, Miss Frances Alberta Fox, was attired in a dress of embroidered Swiss. Mr. Edward Hoffman acted as best man.

The altar by which the wedding group stood was beautifully decorated with several kinds of ferns and seasonal flowers above which hung a large wedding bell, with a large American flag rainbow arched as a background which gave the scene a patriotic tinge.

Miss Anna Temple rendered the wedding march and appropriate music during the reading of the marriage lines of the short ring service of the Methodist Episcopal church by the Rev. Charles Fox Davis.

After the wedding ceremony the company sat down to a wedding supper, the flower decorations of the table being wild lilies of the valley. The young couple were the recipients of many excellent wedding presents, the gifts of their large circle of friends. After the supper a musicale was enjoyed on the picturesque lawn under the silvery moonlight, the company breaking up about midnight. The young couple are well known in the city and will make their home here in the future. Mr. Weber is in the employ of the N. P. The Dispatch joins with their friends in wishing for them a most happy future.

Literary and Musical Program, Card of Races and Sports, Dancing In the Open Air

Deerwood, Minn., July 5—Deerwood's Fourth of July celebration was essentially for the home folks, but many strangers paused in Deerwood and enjoyed the proceedings, picnicking on the grounds at the lake. A speaker's stand and numerous seats were erected in the grove at Serpent lake, along the path leading to the Ingalls Motor Boat Co. docks. Dr. William Reid, Robert Archibald and Rev. LaRoe delivered addresses, there were songs and other musical numbers including a solo by Mrs. P. A. Gough, and later down town a program of races and other sports, including an exciting race between sections of the fire department. In the evening there was dancing and other amusements. The high jump record was broken by one of the civil engineers of the Cuyuna Northern railway who actually cleared six feet and so discouraged his competitors that they dropped out.

BIG CROWDS AT CARNIVAL

Superior Telegram says the Attractions of the Carnival are High Class Ones

A big crowd thronged Hammond Park at Superior July 2 and on the evening to witness the Patterson shows which are the feature attractions of the big Trades and Labor assembly carnival.

The Patterson shows were at Superior two years ago on the same lot but since that time a number of new attractions have been added and the entire equipment is new. A noticeable thing about the Patterson midway is that everybody connected with the shows is in a very different class than is seen at an ordinary street fair. No roughness is permitted either inside or outside the Patterson shows. Each show program lasts over an hour. All the shows are clean and the costumes are new.

At Brainerd preparations are being made for the carnival. The electric light company is getting the transformers placed in position for the big carnival which opens here next week, from July 8 to 13.

BRAINERD SURELY HAD THE "PEP"

Team Plays the Snappiest Kind of Ball in Fourth of July Game With Little Falls

WINS THE GAME IN 3 TO 2 SCORE

Cook Outpitched Dominick and Every Brainerd Man Played Every Minute of the Game

Approximately 1250 paid admissions stormed the gates of the ball park at Little Falls on the Fourth of July and saw Brainerd play a game of ball that was some real playing, a game full of the "pep" that Callan has been clamoring for.

For snap brilliancy and head work, the Little Falls game of the locals is the best thing they have done this season. Some of the objecting fans who said Brainerd can't play and has simply won on its luck, were surprised and handed the old players any number of verbal bouquets.

Brainerd gained its runs, one in the second and two in the seventh innings. Little Falls got its bundle of two in the fifth and after that there was nothing doing in the run getting. Try as they might, they could not break through the impregnable Brainerd defense. Cook shook a star of the first magnitude, out-pitching Dominick.

More complete details of the game will be published in tomorrow's paper.
